

Who Benefits From “Walk for Warmth”?

Walk for Warmth raises funds to help low income families in Mason County with emergency utility assistance. These funds target people, who, for one reason or another, “fall through the cracks” of other State and Federal programs for assistance.

People who are low-income, People who are low-income, have experienced loss of employment or underemployment, are on a fixed income, have felt a rise in prices and/or loss of economic opportunity, and are legitimately unable to meet basic payment of their utility bills, may receive assistance with Walk for Warmth funds. These individuals by their status, are or are near to being homeless.

Prior to assistance, the individual must have been denied help in writing by the Michigan Department of Health & Human Services (MDHHS).

People who volunteer, pledge, and/or walk receive the satisfaction of knowing that they helped individuals and families in need from our county.

Mason County Walk for Warmth is a program sponsored by the Community Action Agency of FiveCAP, Inc. Other agencies sponsor this program in other parts of Michigan.

Local companies who support, sponsor, or help in this effort will receive tax benefits and publicity.
